

2021 iSchool Research Showcase Call for Proposals

The iSchool's annual Research Showcase will return as an in-person event this Fall!

Come share your research at the 2021 iSchool Research Showcase!

Research Showcase is the flagship event to share the breadth, depth and possibilities of the iSchool's research with colleagues and students both at the School, across campus and in the greater community. This year's Showcase will be held at the Illini Union on Wednesday, October 27, 2021. The deadline for proposal submissions is Wednesday, September 29, 2021.

Research Showcase gives the faculty, staff, and students of the iSchool and Informatics a unique platform to reach colleagues, potential collaborators, industry stakeholders and graduate and undergraduate students from across campus who may be less familiar with your work and its impact. Attendees for our 2019 Showcase numbered over 150, with representation from each of the above groups. Join us to share your great work and draw inspiration from this diverse group!

Topics can include (but are not limited to) descriptions of ongoing iSchool and Informatics research or current and upcoming grant-funded projects. Early stage research is invited, but please note that in your submission. You are encouraged to repurpose posters and presentations from recent conferences.

We invite submissions from iSchool and Informatics faculty, staff, and students at both graduate and doctoral levels.
