

According to the ISAA Bylaws, the officers (of ISAA) shall be a president, a vice-president/president elect, past-president, a secretary, a treasurer, and four directors. Officers and directors must be members in good standing of the ISAA.

Officers and directors shall be elected for three-year terms with elections held at the annual meeting. The term of office begins at the close of the annual meeting. Officers and directors may be elected for no more than two consecutive terms. The vice-president shall serve a one-year term as vice-president, a one-year term as president, and a one-year term as immediate past president.

Subject to the approval of the executive board, the dean of the School shall appoint: a member of the faculty or staff to serve as liaison between the School, the ISAA, and the UIAA office; and one or more students currently enrolled in the School to serve as student members. The dean, the faculty-staff liaison, and the student members shall be members ex officio of the executive board. The dean and faculty-staff liaison are ex officio without vote; the student members shall be members ex officio with vote.
