Mentoring of Adjunct Instructors

To ensure positive educational outcomes for students and instructors in the cataloging courses taken by 85% of GSLIS students, I work closely to mentor and support the adjunct instructors who teach ten sections yearly. I recently chaired a search committee that hired six adjuncts in the information organization area.

Mentoring of Teaching Assistants

LIS 380/501 Information Organization and Access: Required course for M.S. degree. Oversaw six Teaching Assistants who supervised discussion sections. Co-taught with one doctoral candidate. Oversaw three doctoral students as TAs for discussion sections, (2013), and two doctoral students as TAs (2014-15).

LIS 507 Cataloging and Classification I, (2007). Co-taught with one doctoral candidate. Work with students in three hourly positions to provide grading, lab support and office hour support.

LIS 590 Naming and Power, (2015, 2017). Co-taught this seminar with one doctoral candidate, K.R. Roberto.

LIS 502 Libraries, Information, and Society (2016-2017). Two sections with Dianah Kacunguzi.

IS502 Libraries, Information, and Society (2017-18). Three sections with K.R. Roberto.
