

The School of Information Sciences is reviewing applications for TA's with strong communication skills and statistical backgrounds. Desired areas of expertise are:

- Information Processing
- Data Science
- Data, Statistical Models, and Information
- Data Visualization
- Information Modeling
- Sociotechnical Information Systems

Positions will be 50% FTE (20 hours/week). Duties may consist of grading student assignments, leading lab or discussion groups in a course setting, proctoring exams, and/or holding office hours.

To Apply: Please send a Statement of Interest, indicating which of the above areas s/he believes would be the best fit for their skillset, as well as a CV or Resume to Dustin Janes djanes3@illinois.edu with the subject of "Fall Teaching Assistant".